

Enhancing Scholarship in Management Education

15 May 2023

The Department of Business Strategy and Innovation welcomes Professor Paul Hibbert (University of St Andrews, UK) and Dr Stuart Middleton (University of Queensland).

Professor Paul Hibbert was appointed as an adjunct to the Department and will be helping to develop the pedagogical research skills of staff and HDR students. Paul is highly regarded amongst management scholars. He is the Editor-in-Chief of the highest ranked pedagogical journal in world, the Academy of Management Learning and Education. He was also recently appointed co-Editor-in-Chief of the British Journal of Management, a top ranked general management journal. In May 2023, Professor Hibbert gave a research seminar over 4 days to Griffith Business School academics.

As part of the Department of Business Strategy and Innovation management education scholarship initiative, we also welcome Dr Stuart Middleton. Stuart is a scholar in the field of management education. He is interested in topics related to the evolution of the management education field, storytelling in teaching, and philosophical approaches to management education. He is an Associate Editor at Journal of Management Education, as well as Academy of Management Learning and Education. He has been awarded the Management and Organization Behavior Teaching Society's Distinguished Mid-Career Educational Leader for 2023. Stuart will be supporting our colleagues over two events in 2023 and 2024.

* The Academy of Management Learning and Education journal is the highest ranked management education journal in the world.
